

Toolbox Talk Tuesday 10th May - Rhett Brown

- My life now is with 4 care givers to provide all my basic necessities
  - They look after my toiletries-wash me shower and dry me
    - They clean my teeth
      - They shave me
    - They dress and undress me
    - They provide my meals
    - They provide my transport
      - They put me to bed
      - They get me up each day
  - I can no longer hunt shoot and fish with my boy
    - I can't play pool with my mates
  - I can still drink but my bag overflows and spills out.
    - I lost my wife she left me
      - I don't have any-one to hold or hug
    - Even if I did what a useless feeling it would be
      - All this because I fell from 2.2 metres
  - I should have refused to work and stuck to my guns
    - My boss got off with a fine he didn't pay
      - I got a life sentence
